

GRAIN
CHILLER

FOUNDATION

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Cooling systems flowing cool air to make grain conservation easier.

The chillers are connected to the aeration system in order to distribute the air-flow to the aeration channels.

Warm air is flowing from the bottom of the silo to the roof for its expulsion.

Highly recommended for rice, maize, barley, bean, sunflower seed, sorghum, cotton seed, green coffee and compound feeds.

